MEET THE TEAM

It has taken lots of different people to bring Planet Omar to life on stage. Let's meet the people involved.

ZANIB MIAN

Author

WHAT IS HER JOB?

Zanib wrote the Planet Omar book series. Omar, his fantastic world, and his funny family all came from Zanib's imagination. Without Zanib, Omar wouldn't even exist!

What skills do you think Zanib needs to be good at her job?

ASIF KAHN

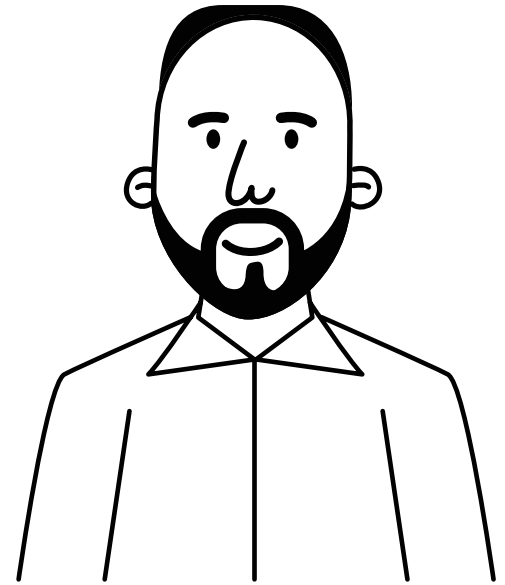

Playwright/Adapter

WHAT IS HIS JOB?

Asif adapted Planet Omar into a play. Plays work differently to books, so Asif had to think carefully about how to make sure the story is clear when you can only use dialogue and stage directions to tell it.

What skills do you think Asif needs to be good at his job?

SAMEENA HUSSAIN

Director

WHAT IS HER JOB?

Sameena directed the play Planet Omar. Her job is to decide how to bring the script to life on the stage. She makes decisions about who the actors will be and helps them with their performances. She also makes decisions about how to make things like H2O – Omar’s imaginary dragon friend – exist in real life on stage.

What skills do you think Sameena needs to be good at her job?

NIKKI CHARLESWORTH

Designer

WHAT IS HER JOB?

Nikki has designed the set, costume and puppets for Planet Omar – she has to make sure everything the audience sees on stage fits in the world of Planet Omar and is in line with the director’s vision for the show.

What skills do you think Nikki needs to be good at her job?

MEET OMAR'S FAMILY

OMAR

Has a huge imagination, hates marshmallows, once raced against his Dad's car on his bike and won.

ESA

Don't be fooled by this three-year-old's innocent face, he can scream and cry louder than an ambulance siren.

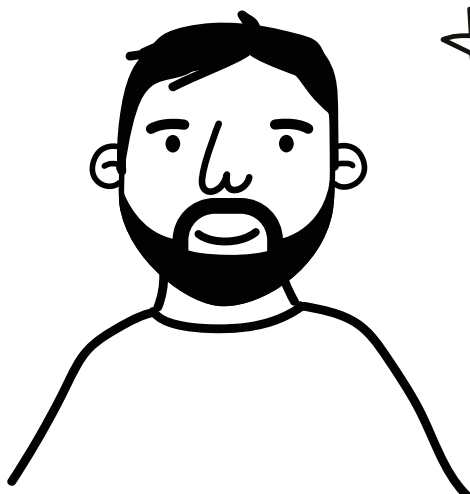

MARYAM

Was once caught hiding a stash of fondant fancies under her pillow. Loves winding Omar up even more than she loves fondant fancies.

MUM

Doesn't know how to say no and is never seen without a cup of coffee in her hand.

DAD

Rides a motorbike (Grandma tries to puncture the wheels because she doesn't think it's safe).

YOUR TURN

If there was a show all about your life, like there is about Omar's who would be the main characters? Tell us about them here and draw in the boxes.
